

Over Nights at the Delaware Museum of Natural History

Groups will take part in programs, crafts and activities that fulfill designated badge requirements based on the theme chosen for the evening. Spend time in the Discovery Room and have free time to look through the museum galleries. Groups will sleep in one of the three main galleries. Each scout will receive a special Delaware Museum of Natural History Camp-In Patch. An evening snack and a light breakfast are provided.

Who: Juniors

When: 6 p.m.-8 a.m.

Where: The Delaware Museum of Natural History

Register: Please call for available dates and details. All groups must pre-register by contacting Mariah Romaninsky, Community Programs Coordinator at 302 658 9111, ext. 322.

Cost: $35/child, $10/adult Minimum Fee: $450

Notes: An individual troop can do any of the badges listed in parentheses if you are the only troop attending.

Themes:

Nature - Juniors (Earth Connections)

Animals - Juniors (Wildlife)

Night Sky - Juniors (Sky Search)

Plants - Juniors (Plants and Animals)