

Saint Michael's Hooper Strait Lighthouse

Almost everyone has climbed a lighthouse in their lifetime but how many can say that they have slept in one? Now, your troop can, when you visit the Hooper Strait Lighthouse in Saint Michaels, MD. The lighthouse was removed from its station on Hooper Strait and is now on display.

Who: Juniors

When: Overnight programs are only on week-ends in the spring and fall

Where: Hooper Strait Lighthouse, Saint Michael, MD

Register: Call Rachel Dolhanczyk at the beginning of the year, preferably in January to get the information packet sent to you to schedule your overnigher. 1-410-745-2916 ext103 Admission to the Chesapeake Maritime Museum is included in the Lighthouse Program.

Cost: Is included in the information packet

Note: There are no restroom facilities in the lighthouse. They are located a short walk from the lighthouse. Local restaurants and sandwich shops are close by and deliver to the lighthouse for lunch and /or dinner. The breakfast diner is a short walk away. It's a Crabs Life is a Girl Scout Program that is offered on Tilghman Island, MD., minutes from the lighthouse.